Ringgo Paul

Tiefling Rogue · Level 1

The scout choosing a different path

What you know

You left a dangerous life in Baldur's Gate behind. Gundren trusts you to choose the safest camp rather than the fastest. You know how ambushes work, but the decision about what to do with that knowledge belongs to you.

Your choices will shape what this road becomes.

At the table

Ringgo Paul | Tiefling Rogue · Level 1

AC	HP	SPEED	STEALTH
16	10	30 ft.	+8

Your actions

• Rapier: +6 to hit, 1d8+4 piercing. Shortbow: +6 to hit, 1d6+4 piercing, range 80/320 ft.; you start with 20 arrows.

• Sneak Attack: add 1d6 once per turn to a qualifying finesse or ranged hit. You generally need advantage, or an ally close to the target while you have no disadvantage.

• Two daggers: the first deals 1d4+4 on a hit. A bonus action attack with the second deals 1d4; do not add +4 to that damage.

Useful reminders

• You have darkvision 60 ft. and resistance to fire damage. You carry thieves' tools, rope, a lantern, oil, torches, and ten pitons.

• Stealth is your confirmed Expertise skill. Your second Expertise choice is still open. The Nick and Vex labels from the exported sheet do not apply under your current rules profile.

YOUR CHOICE

Before play, choose your second Expertise skill or tool and tell the DM. What warning would make you risk revealing a skill you would rather keep hidden?

Your live character sheet holds changes to HP, resources, and choices.
