FEATS / CLASS FEATURES / MAGIC

Piercer

TASHA'S CAULDRON OF EVERYTHING

Dexterity +1 is already included on this sheet. Once per turn, after hitting a creature with an attack that deals piercing damage, you may reroll one of that attack's damage dice; you must keep the new result. On a piercing critical hit, roll one additional damage die.

Sneak Attack

ON A QUALIFYING HIT

Add 2d6 once per turn to one hit with a finesse or ranged weapon when you have advantage. You can also qualify if another enemy of the target is within 5 feet of it, is not incapacitated, and you do not have disadvantage. Sneak Attack remains 2d6 at level 4.

Assassinate

OPENING ROUND

Your attacks have advantage against creatures that have not yet taken a turn in the combat. A hit against a surprised creature is a critical hit. The DM determines surprise; acting first does not create it. A creature stops being surprised when its first turn ends.

Cunning Action

BONUS ACTION

Use your bonus action to Dash, Disengage, or Hide. Dash adds 30 feet of movement; Disengage prevents opportunity attacks from your movement for the turn. Hiding requires suitable circumstances and a Stealth check.

Second dagger

BONUS ACTION

After using the Attack action to attack with a light melee weapon in one hand, you may use your bonus action to attack with a different light melee weapon in your other hand: +7 to hit, 1d4 piercing. Do not add +5 damage. The rapier is not light. This competes with Cunning Action.

Hellish Rebuke

REACTION / 1 PER LONG REST

When a creature you can see within 60 feet damages you, use your reaction to cast this racial spell at 2nd level: Dexterity save DC 14; 3d10 fire damage on a failure, half on a success. Verbal and somatic components. One use per long rest; no spell slot required.

Thaumaturgy

CANTRIP / AT WILL

Action; range 30 feet; verbal component. Create a minor supernatural effect, such as a booming voice, harmless tremors, altered flames, a sudden sound, an unlocked door or window opening or closing, or altered eyes. Up to three of its minute-long effects can coexist.

CRITICAL-HIT EXAMPLE

Rapier + Sneak Attack + Piercer: 3d8 + 4d6 + 5 piercing damage on a qualifying critical hit. The +5 is added only once. Piercer adds one extra d8, not another full set of Sneak Attack dice.
